Dear Mrs. Will,

You have been one of the most wonderful teachers I have ever known. Set as our great pleasure to meet such a person in life. You have been an uplift in my school life. Only wish you taught another outfit since I'm disappointed in this. Thanks to your success and happiness in your future life.

MIRROR

At the end and am I glad of it. In my class I thought of you as just another teacher I found you to be as good as I am. I also discovered that you are a swell gal and I wish you were the happiness and success of the world. But that's all I can say.

There's no more left so I'll think you're a teacher. Lots of love. Helen May at your foundation in history in your well as in your class. Sincerely, Pat Smith

Dearest Mrs. Will, I have certainly been a swell teacher. I have learned a lot from you and I'm sure you have learned a lot from me. I'm sure you'll be a good teacher. I'm sure you'll be a good teacher. I'm sure you'll be a good teacher.

Billy Smith

Dear Mrs. Hill,

How can I begin to tell you how wonderful I think you are. You've been so good and kind to me this year I couldn't thank you enough. No wonder you're so popular with all the men — you're so full of pep and energy and life — nobody could help but like you. I've never thought of you as a teacher — you're just not like one. Oh — heck — I can't tell you how much I like you and think of you. All I can say is whoever the lucky man is that gets you — really has something. (Here's pulling for Bill)

I wish you lots of happiness, Mrs. Hill, and thanks a million.

Love,

Carolyn Cooke

Dear Mrs. Hill,

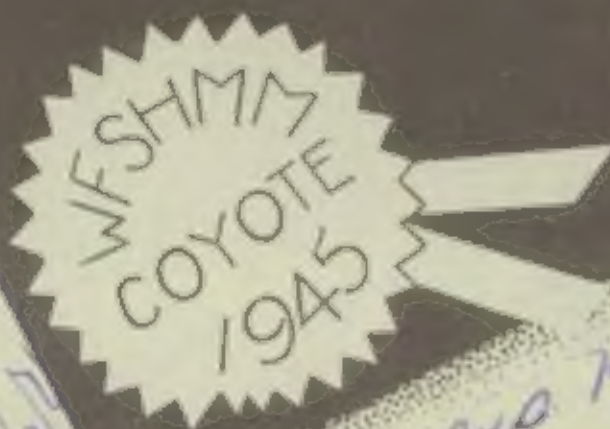

I don't <sup>know</sup> how to tell you how wonderful I think you are. I don't regard you as a teacher, but as a good friend! You are so full of pep, and have such a wonderful personality no one could help but like you!

Lots of love,

Patsy Jones

FROM ITS EARLIEST STAGES OF PRODUCTION THE AMERICAN MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY HAS CONFORMED TO CURRENT TENDENCIES OF THE PUBLIC BY PRESENTING CINEMAS WHICH PORTRAY BOTH THE LIGHTER AND DEEPER ATMOSPHERES RISING FROM THE DEVELOPMENT OF A PROGRESSIVE PEOPLE. CONSIDERING THE AVERAGE AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOL TO BE A MINIATURE REPRODUCTION THE 1945 STAFF HAS CHOSEN TO PRESENT A TRUE-TO-LIFE DRAMA, IN MOVIE STYLE, BUILT ABOUT THE SCHOOL LIFE OF SOME FOURTEEN HUNDRED STUDENTS AND THEIR TEACHERS. THIS MOVIE MIRROR, UNDER THE ABLE DIRECTION OF A CHOICE ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF AND WITH A SUPERB SUPPORTING CAST, OFFERS ITS READERS A CROSS-SECTION OF YOUTH IN ACTION, HOPING THAT IT WILL ENDURE AS A PART OF THE MEMORY OF THOSE WHOSE HEARTS WILL ALWAYS RETAIN A SHARE IN WFSH.

Playing reserve guard, Lowe was outstanding on defense. Watch for him on the starting lineup in '4

WILLIAM SAMFSON

One of the hottest men on the squad, Samfson's lack of experience was the factor that retarded his action. He returns next season.

DONALD STACKS

Excellent play on the Rowles entitled Don to come to the Coyotes in the middle of the season. His experience will be valuable to next year's team.

JOHN PAUL LEAGUE

Being a reserve guard, John learned much this year that will aid next year's team. He is aggressive both on defense and offense.

BILLY JOE BOYD

As an end, "Bullet" saw considerable action this year. His speed and pass snagging were a great help to the team.
